No American in history is so close to the hearts of the American people. The observance of this Centennial should be made popular throughout the United States, for Lincoln alone, of all the mighty group of which he was the central figure, died mourned by South as well as North. I bespeak for this Program, which contains so much patriotism and material, all of which will have a decided tendency to add additional fervor to our already exalted opinion of Lincoln, a large circulation among Grand Army Posts, Womans Relief Corps, Public and Private Schools, and all patriotic and charitable societies and institutions in our broad land.
