Excerpt: . . . I. THE COURT. FOREWORD. THE United States Court for China is a part of the Federal judicial system corresponding in grade mainly to the District Courts but taking cognizance of certain causes (such as probate, divorce and adoption) which, in America, are entertained only by the state courts; and exercising also appellate jurisdiction of causes originating in the fourteen American Consular Courts thruout China. This United States Court is considered as located in the ninth judicial circuit and appeals lie from it to the Court of Appeals sitting at San Francisco. The test of jurisdiction over the person in this extraterritorial court is the nationality of the defendant. Anyone may be a plaintiff but there must be a defendant subject to American authority in order to confer jurisdiction. The process of the court runs thruout China and anyone therein so subject may be prosecuted...
