Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The College and the College Man in Foreign Missionary Achievement The careful student of the history of missions is deeply impressed with the uncommon service of the college to this great cause. Only a brief survey can here be attempted. We note: I. The college has been the birthplace and the nursery of foreign missionary movements. Christian societies of students have played a most important part in modern church history. This company needs only to be reminded of the Holy Club of Oxford, and to contemplate its far-reaching missionary consequences. John Wesley, the leader of that club, gave us the phrase which has become the missionary platform of the church - The world is my parish. The haystack prayer meeting was held by a group of Williams College students, composed of Samuel J. Mills, James Richards, Francis L. Robbins, and Byram Green. They wrought a revolution in the religious life of the college and developed a missionary spirit which brought into existence the American Board of Foreign Missions, the first organized foreign missionary society in...
