Implicit in this recommendation is continued close cooperation with Mexico and Canada. One particularly important effort is to improve screening efforts prior to departure from foreign airports, especially in countries participating in the visa waiver program. Mr. H. Our law enforcement system has to send a mes-AMILTON sage of welcome, tolerance and justice to members of the immi-grant communities in the United States, fostering also a respect for the rule of law. Good immigration services are one way to reach out that is valuable, including for intelligence. State and local law enforcement agencies need more training; they need to partner with Federal agencies so that they can cooper-ate more effectively in identifying terrorist suspects. We also need secure identification, and that should begin in the United States. We believe that the Federal Government should set standards for the issuance of birth certificates and sources of identification such as drivers licenses. The bottom line is that our visa and border control systems must become an integral part of our counterterrorism intelligence system. Mr. G. The USA PATRIOT Act, passed in the wake of the ORTON 9 11 attacks, was substantially the product of this Committee. While a number of provisions of the Act were relatively non-con-troversial, updating existing authorities to take account of the dig-ital age in which we now live, others are more far-reaching, grant-ing to the FBI, the Department of Justice and other executive branch agencies important new authorities to use in combatting terrorism. For this reason, the Congress chose to sunset many of the provi-sions of the...
