It was almost twelve hundred years after Justinian before the Lawyer fairly wrested rule from the Soldier. It is barely a century since Junius, in the high of his conflict with the Lawyers, and specially with Lord Chief-Justice Mansfield, amended the famous maxim of the great law commentator, and proclaimed, not Blackstone's Trial by Jury, but the Liberty of the Press, the Palladium of all the civil, political, and religious rights of an Englishman. From his triumph we may fairly date - for good or ill - the birth of genuine Journalism. And how gigantic have been the strides of its progress!
