Mother, I should so like to have a great deal of money, said little Tom Fletcher one evening, as he sat on a low stool by his mother s knee. His mother was knitting busily by the firelight, and they had both been silent for some time. What would you do with a great deal of money if you had it? Oh! I don t know-I would do a great many things. But should not you like to have a great deal of money, mother? persisted he. Perhaps I should, answered Mrs. Fletcher. I am like you sometimes, dear, and think that I should be very glad of a little more money. But then I don t think I am like you in one thing, for I have always some little plan in my mind, for which I should want the money. I never wish for it just for its own sake.
